

- St. Pius X will celebrate Mass on Saturdays at 5 pm and Sundays at 10 am.
- Dispensation from the Sunday Obligation and Holy Days of Obligations hereby continues to be granted and remains in effect until further notice.
- The faithful, should they not attend Mass are encouraged to devote themselves to prayer for a suitable time or alone or as a family. The precept to receive Holy Communion at least once a year during Easter Season is hereby dispensed.
- Those who are sick, caring for someone who is sick or experiencing symptoms should refrain from attending Mass.
- Please enter the Church by the side entrance by the Adoration Chapel. You will exit through the front door.
- Please obey “no parking” areas by Chapel entrance. This is a fire lane and should not be blocked.
- You are encouraged to use hand sanitizer before entering the Church and prior to the reception of Holy Communion. You are encouraged to bring your own hand sanitizer so that it may be used as needed.
- Face masks are to be worn by all lay faithful who attend Mass. Please supply your own mask. The only time face masks are to be removed is when the reader proclaims the Word of God, the cantor leads the congregation and when the faithful receives Holy Communion. The priest will only wear a mask for the distribution of Holy Communion.
- Gloves should not be worn for the reception of Holy Communion.
- Social distancing is to be practiced, keeping six feet between individuals/families. Families may sit together. The Ministers of Hospitality will seat people. Families will be seated in the wings.
- All formal and informal gatherings before or after Mass are strictly prohibited.
- Hymnals will not be used at this time.
- No offering will be taken up. A collection basket will be available for offerings in the rear of the Church or you may continue to mail your donations to the parish office.
- The sign of peace is omitted.
- Reception of Holy Communion: each communicant approaches the altar, maintaining a safe distant between those in line. As they near the altar they should lower their mask. They may receive in the hand or on the tongue. You are encouraged to receive in the hand for greater caution.
- All holy water fonts will remain empty.
- Sale of religious items (book/pamphlets) is suspended.
- Access to lighting of votive candles is suspended.
- If you wish to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation, please call the parish office to schedule a time for confession.
- Supermarket gift cards will be sold in the parish office during regular business hours. Please call so we may have your order ready. There will be no sales before or after Mass.
- Daily Mass will be celebrated at 9 am in the Adoration Chapel unless social distancing cannot be maintained. In that case, it will be moved and celebrated in the Church.
- Bulletins will not be distributed at Mass. They will be emailed and mailed.
